My dear Garrison

We shall look for you & Wendell on Monday. You will have a pleasant visit. I am quite sure at the Prices. They are a most excellent family.

Oliver will tell you that you will be expected to find the way at Dr Childs where is the to be held the weekly meeting of the Fair circle. For the sake of giving you as little walking and as much rest as possible, we shall - if you desire it - let you remain in town all night - on Thursday night; but Wendell who is young & strong, we shall carry out to our house, which - extra bene - is to be seen readily when you return after the meeting.

Thank you - in advance - for the resolution. I liked your "No. statement - my narrow."

Yours truly -

L. J. Russell
